

MEET IN Ames IA

PLANNER'S GUIDE

Welcome to Ames!

I personally invite you to discover all that Ames, Iowa, has to offer: outstanding event venues, extraordinary customer service, easy access, surprising attractions, and unique places for your participants to eat and drink. Named a "Top 10 Best College Town in America" (BestColleges, 2023), Ames is the perfect place for your next event.

In Iowa and all around the Midwest, Ames is synonymous with great events. It's easy to drive here, easy to find your way around once you arrive, chock full of exceptional facilities, and packaged in an affordable, small city with a cool college-town vibe. Ames even has a top 10 "North American Gardens Worth Traveling For" with our very own Reiman Gardens. (A great excuse to stay an extra day!)

Discover Ames knows events, and we know how to help you with YOUR BEST EVENT. We've hosted huge, city-wide events – Odyssey of the Mind World Finals, RAGBRAI overnights, and national sporting events to name just a few – and we can also help plan high-end corporate workshops, youth competitions, intimate banquets, and specialized conferences.

Event planners come back to Ames year after year because they know they'll be greeted by friendly faces and our professional, efficient visitor experience team. One event manager* recently told us, "Everyone in the organization is outgoing, personable, and always willing to assist in any way to make our event the best it can be."

Here's our promise: We'll go the extra mile to make your events special and memorable, too. We think you'll find Ames and Iowa State University the ideal location for your next event, and we can't wait to see you here!

10 must-see attractions in Ames

1. Reiman Gardens

With 17 acres of outdoor exhibits, meeting space, an indoor conservatory, and a butterfly wing, Reiman Gardens has been named one of the "Top 10 Garden Destinations in North America."

2. Iowa State University campus

Visitors can enjoy Iowa State's park-like campus, Cyclone athletics, art museums, theatre and music, dining, the Memorial Union, and more.

3. Ames Main Street

Shop, savor, sip, and stroll in downtown Ames! Farmers' markets, community events, eclectic shops, and independent restaurants make the Main Street district a top Ames destination.

4. Ada Hayden Heritage Park

Kayak, canoe, fish, walk, or bike at this scenic getaway on the northern edge of Ames.

5. Art museums and galleries

You'll find world-class art museums and public art on the Iowa State campus, plus the Octagon Center for the Arts in downtown Ames.

6. Good eats

The Ames food scene is, at turns, sophisticated, casual, and just plain fun, with indie restaurants, farm-to-table fare, and cozy cafes in addition to some truly mouthwatering pizza and barbecue.

7. Local brews

Ames has the best brews! From fresh-roasted coffee to Iowa-brewed beers, you can't beat the taste of local!

8. Live music and theatre

Throughout the year, you'll find live music at Stephens Auditorium, restaurants, breweries, City Auditorium, the M-Shop on campus, and more. During the summer months, outdoor music venues abound. Looking for a theatrical experience? Check out the Discover Ames event calendar for Broadway touring shows, regional theatre, and student performances.

9. Cyclone athletics

If you're here during the fall, stay for the Big 12's most exciting football experience! Or, enjoy the thrill of Hilton Magic for basketball, gymnastics, volleyball, and wrestling. There's a sport for every fan!

10. Golf

Tee off at one of three public golf courses in Ames: Veenker Memorial, Coldwater Golf Links, and Homewood Municipal.

Some of the most vibrant food discoveries can be found in places you would least expect it. Take Ames, Iowa, for example. Located in central Iowa, roughly 30 miles north of Des Moines, this idyllic city with an informal vibe enjoys an eclectic mix of eateries that will dazzle your taste buds."
